IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, by March 24, 2023, the parties shall file on ECF a joint status letter not to exceed five double-spaced pages. Among any other topics the parties wish to raise, the letter should provide:

1. A description of the parallel Libyan proceeding including any relevant exhibits, covering:

  - b. The role of Defendant Fathi Aldukali's brother, Faraj Aldukali, and whether Defendant Aldukali can recover a judgment in his brother's name;
  - c. Each Defendant's position on the impact of a reversal of the Libyan judgment, including which claims in the instant case such a reversal would resolve;
2. The status of Baltic Auto Shipping, Inc.'s efforts to determine who had custody of Mr. Aldukali's goods when they were allegedly damaged in Lithuania; and

3. The status of discovery, including the sharing of Libyan-proceeding-related documents among all counsel, the 28,000 pages produced by MSC Mediterranean to Trips Logistics, and any outstanding requests for admission.
